Another Haircut on Friday as ASI Dips 10bps on Sell-Pressure; NIBOR Rates Crash Across Tenors on Liquidity Ease....

The local stock market had a challenging day on Friday, with the ASI dipping by 0.10% to close at 66,382.14 points. This decline was primarily driven by sell-offs in mid and large cap stocks. Consequently, the market capitalization of quoted companies also contracted by 10bps to N36.33 trillion. Despite this negative performance, there were more advancers (30) than laggards (23), and the year-to-date return for the index remained at a healthy 29.52%. Decliners during the Friday session included BUACEMENT, TRIPPLEG, OANDO, JOHNHOLT, and CORNERST, with their share prices experiencing significant drops of 10.00%, 9.96%, 9.77%, 9.76%, and 9.55%, respectively. Amidst this bearish trend, the Consumer Goods and Banking sectors garnered investor interest, posting gains of 2.26% and 1.40%, respectively. Conversely, the Industrial Goods and Insurance sectors saw losses of 2.80% and 0.43%, primarily due to sell-offs in BUACEMENT and CORNERST, while the Oil & Gas index closed flat. Market activity remained active, with total deals decreasing by 7.37% to 6,323 trades. However, the total trading volume increased by 6.99% to 292.94 million units, and the traded value surged by 32.81% to N4.53 billion. At the close of the session, FIDELITYBK led the trading volumes with 48.59 million units valued at N393.89 million, involving 244 trades.

Money Market

In the money market, NIBOR rates crashed across for most of the maturity gauges as the overnight NIBOR declined by 6.63% points to 3.0% as liquidity level in the financial system eased on the back of N1.1 trillion fund inflow from FAAC. Also, the key money market rates such as the open repo rate (OPR) and the overnight lending rate (OVN) lowered further to 2.70% (from 7.61%) and 3.40% (from 8.33%) respectively.

On the other hand, the Nigerian Interbank Treasury Bills True Yield (NITTY) closed lower across the 1-month, 3-months, 6-months and 12-months tenors on the back of improved demand for government short term securities as evidenced in the last treasury bills Primary Market Auction on Thursday by the CBN. However, the average secondary market yield on the Nigerian Treasury Bills trended lower by 39bps across the short, mid and long end of the curve on the back of demand pressure.

Bond Market

The secondary market for FGN Bonds was relatively quiet. However, the average yield of the FGN paper closed mildly positive by 4bp mostly due to yield decreases of 9bps and 7bps on the APR-37 and JUN-38 maturities.

In Nigeria's Eurobonds market, it was a bullish outing across all maturities with positive trading pattern. Also, the average secondary market yield closed bullish by 22bps. Thus, the FEB-38 was the best performer.

Foreign Exchange Market

The Naira appreciated by 2.58% at the I&E window to close at N755.27 to the greenback as demand pressure took a breather. Meanwhile, at the parallel market, the local currency was quiet to close at N1,008/$1.

Global Commodity Market

At 3:30 p.m. GMT+1, WTI crude oil futures eased slightly to $90.91 per barrel on Friday as traders express concerns that Saudi Arabia may unwind its production cuts earlier than expected. Meanwhile, the Brent Crude closed at $92.42 per barrel on the back of bargain hunting and interest rate worries.
